

COJET MEETING
March 2012
COPE REPORT

Key accomplishments:

- The Detention Academy received a 4.81 out of 5 overall score – the highest score ever received for this program. Many of the faculty received perfect scores in various categories.
- David and Kevin were certified by the National Guard in rules and safety for firearms instructors. This certification is necessary to train on National Guard facilities. This was a very positive training and the first step necessary to start a great inter-agency relationship for years to come.
- The eight New Officer Safety Orientation Lesson Plans were corrected.
- David and Kevin attended a Simunitions Instructors Recertification in Kingman.
- IPS is being conducted currently utilizing the new format of Core and Elective classes.

COPE:

COPE met on December 13th telephonically

- The Committee approved Defensive Tactics and Firearms Instructors who completed the TTT program, reviewed a new class outline for Re-entry for the Institute for Intensive Probation Supervision and reviewed program data from the last COJET meeting.
- On September 27th COPE approved the eight New Officer Orientation lesson plans. Edits from those outlines have been completed and the next step will be to distribute the curriculum via CD to county Training and Safety Coordinators. The final phase of developing CBT's for each module will begin.

IPS Subcommittee:

Subcommittee met on October 19th, 2011

- The IPS Subcommittee reviewed the evaluations and members provided their feedback on the piloted classes from the IPS Academy in September. Committee updated the status of classes set to be piloted in the March, 2011 Academy.
- Conclusion of this subcommittee is expected after the March IPS program.

Detention Subcommittee:

The next Detention Subcommittee meeting is scheduled for March 28th. The meeting will utilize Webex.

- Agenda items include a review of the Detention Academy evaluations, an update and review of the progress from the three workgroups and discussion of the Train-the-Trainer topic for July. In addition, the subcommittee will discuss gender issues and youth in confinement.

Other projects:

- The Supervisor's Workgroup completed all six units on November 18th, 2011. COPE reviewed the outline on March 6th and the proposal will go to CLIA for review. The pilot of this ACS class is scheduled for June 2012.
